"Train up a child in the way he should go. And when he is old he will not depart from it"

Proverbs 22:6

This is a command of whatever you teach your children, this is what they will be when they grow up. Your children see and hear everything that you do, even if you don't think they are. They pay attention to your reactions, your words, and how you live. In Genesis there are two different stories of two fathers and how each one lived differently than the other. How they led the destiny of their family was dependent on the choices they made. Let's take a look at the first father. In Genesis 13 it talks about how Lot moved his tent in the valley toward the evil city, Sodom. Notice he didn't move into the city, but toward it, as life went on it states in chapter 14 he dwelt in the city. It is not always a quick move, but a progressive movement when allowing things of this world to break your wall of values you once held. In chapter 19 it states two angels went to Sodom to warn Lot to move him and any of his family out of the city before God destroyed it. In verse 14 Lot went to his family and warned them to escape before it was too late, but they laughed at him and took him like he was joking. Lot lost his testimony to his family by the example of how he lived and how he raised them. He wasn't a righteous man that walked close to God for his family to fear what was really about to happen. So when the time came Lot was able to just escape with his wife and his two unmarried daughters. As you know Lot's wife couldn't look away from the past sinful life, she had to turn and look at the city she didn't want to give up. A pillar of salt is what she was left as. Because of the life Lot lived backslidden and allowing the worldly ways to sway him he lost everything. Jesus even told the Jews "remember Lots wife" it was Lot, the father who led them to this position. Now let's turn to the second Father, Noah. Noah was a righteous man, and in Genesis 6:8 it says that Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. In chapter 7 right before the water over flowed the earth the Lord said "Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation." Because Noah was a faithful man, obedient a good and righteous father, his whole household was saved from destruction. His wife and sons saw how Noah lived and obeyed everything the Lord had told him, even when their neighbors would stop and mock him for building an ark. Noah kept going, and stayed focused on God and what He wanted him to do. He stood strong on what he believed and nothing made him twitch or doubt his beliefs. Fathers today do make mistakes, but there is a choice to make on what kind of inheritance we want for our children, you can be in the church being a righteous, obedient man or out in the world leading your family out of church. Planting the seeds in your children are important. Ask yourself these questions: What things do I allow in my house or allow my children to see or do? Do my kids see me worship God? Do they hear me pray? Do I make God a priority in our lives? Do they see me read the Bible? Do the words that come out of my mouth, words of God? Remember your children will remember the seeds you plant in their life, and you will see it reflect in their lives.

FIRST YOUTH FROM PENTECOSTALS OF BILLINGS CHURCH TO GO ON A MISSION!!

Kayla Coonfare is raising money to go on a Missions trip to Los Angeles, Ca. Other youth around the states are heading over to help a new Pastor and church reach out to the lost and hungry souls on the streets of L.A.

This is something she feels lead to do by God directing and opening the doors for her to go on this life changing journey. She is needing to raise $2000 We feel God will provide her with the funds to reach this goal!

If you feel lead to support her in this opportunity please provide her with whatever is on your heart. Nothing is too small, every dollar counts!

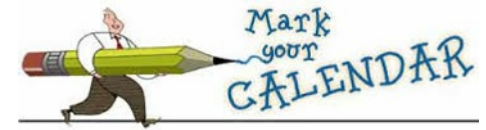

My Father Is A Christian

My father is a Christian;
He leads our household well;
With instruction from the Bible,
Right behavior he'll compel.

Yet he steers us with compassion;
His gentle love is true;
He conforms to our Lord Jesus,
So we know just what to do.
He teaches us with purpose,
Guides us in all Godly ways,
So we will take the right path,
And serve our Lord with praise.

I'm glad you're a Christian, Dad;
You help me see things clearly.
I'll always look up to you,
~Joanna Fuchs

Remember the Giver

God wants us to enjoy the good gifts that he gives to us, provided that we don't so focus on the gift that we forget the Giver. When the gift becomes more important than the Giver, you have idolatry; when the Giver is seen through the gift, you have worship.

ALL NATIONS DAY

*"All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord; they will bring glory to your name."
Psalm 86:9*

Come join us in worship as multiple nationalities sing praise to our Lord.

Peach Cheesecake

Ingredients:

Crust: 1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1/4 cup sugar 1 tablespoon butter, melted
Filling:
2 eggs
12 ounces cream cheese, softened
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup peach jam, plus 1 cup

Directions

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F.
In a medium size bowl, combine the graham cracker crumbs with the sugar and butter. Mix well and place in the bottom and sides of an 8-inch springform cake pan. Make sure to press against the sides and bottom of the pan. Set crust aside.
Prepare the filling by beating the eggs and cream cheese together. Add the sugar and vanilla and continue beating until well blended. Add 1/4 cup peach jam and mix until incorporated. Pour mixture into prepared crust and bake for 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool for 10 minutes.
Remove cake from oven and top with remaining 1 cup peach jam. Cool to room temperature and then refrigerate overnight.

Do you have nomophobia?

SOLD OUT
4 JUNE

Find out if you have the condition that means technology is taking over your life.

You might be asking, "What in the world is nomophobia?" I did too. But when I found out what it was, I realised I may have it. We know a 'phobia' is a fear of something which can cause anxiety and stress. Usually, the amount of stress or anxiety doesn't correspond to the level of danger that actually exists - and so it is ultimately irrational.

But Nomo ... what is nomo? Nomo is an abbreviation for "no mobile phone". The term was created after a study four years ago found that 53% of mobile phone users in Britain tended to be anxious when they "lost their mobile phone, ran out of battery or no longer had network coverage." So nomophobia is the fear of being out of contact with your mobile phone! Stop now and think ... what if you lost your phone? Did that just cause you panic?

How you know you've got nomophobia

Do you:

- have an inability to turn off your phone?
- take your phone to the bathroom (full disclosure - I do)?
- obsessively check emails, texts, facebook, twitter, etc.?

Technological advances are certainly great but with studies showing that we check our phones on average 34 times a day, maybe we have gone a bit too far. Just Google nomophobia and see all the news. A recent article in New York Daily News describes the issue, interviews a subject, and shows a nomophobia assessment. What is most shocking however is a statement made by one of the people who has this fear:

"I feel like the virtual world is more real. That's the world I want to engage in. I can't even imagine only checking my phone once an hour. I just feel like that's my whole universe."

Check your technology use

Have you become obsessive about checking your phone? Do you sometimes feel that the virtual universe is more real than the actual universe? If that sounds like you, here's a few suggestions:

- Check yourself and limit your own time on the phone.
- Question what is having the greater influence on your life: technology or Jesus?
- If you are becoming isolated, withdrawn and depressed, you may need to seek professional medical help.

It may seem silly, but we have to honestly ask these questions regularly and check the influence our technology has over our lives. One day, you may look back on your youth and wish you had spent more time with God, family and friends. You will never look back and wish you spent more time on your phone.
