If only we all had this kind of passion for worshipping our resurrected King!! A child's faith! This picture of these two young boys touched me deeply... and spoke to my "spirit."

Notice the plastic chairs? Dirt floor? no special lighting, and also note the tattered condition of the boys Bible.. that book is BEING USED!!!!

That's probably why he has reached such passionate heights in worship and touching God's Holiness. Worship is not entertainment, it is not enhanced by props or how talented or loud the musicians are. We do not approach God based on sights and sounds... but a deep revelation in our SPIRIT of the ONE WHO is being "WORSHIPED."

What would it take for you to gain this kind of worship?

Twenty Signs of a Lukewarm

Christian, by Martyn Ballester Sr.

How do you know if you're Lukewarm?

1. When the story of Calvary doesn't make you cry
2. When sin doesn't bother you
3. When you find it comfortable to miss church services
4. When your prayer life is non-existent or empty
5. When you leave your only Bible at church
6. When tithing is a sacrifice for you
7. When worship is an effort
8. When saying amen to the preaching is uncomfortable
9. When you seek God only when you are in desperate need
10. When you no longer witness
11. When you look for loopholes in your church's standards
12. When you love pleasure more than you love God
13. When your giving is from your leftovers and not your first fruits
14. When you want to miss Hell, but not enough to change how you live
15. When you are worried more about man's approval than God's approval
16. When you feel no inward response to preaching
17. When criticizing your pastor, the church, and holiness come easy
18. When Satan doesn't bother fighting you
19. When you no longer weep over lost souls
20. When thoughts of the coming of the Lord don't excite you.

Are you lukewarm??

Taking Notice, By April Coonfare

We see people all around us everyday that may look happy on the outside, but on the inside they can be hurting. Everyone deals with life, and with life comes all sorts of emotions.

We need to allow the Holy Ghost to guide us and help us be sensitive to all we come in contact with.

Some you can see the hurt on their faces and they don't realize it, but others put a mask on to hide their true feelings inside.

Have you ever had that urge when in line somewhere, to buy the person behind you their food or coffee? Maybe even fill someones tank up with gas.?

Even sometimes if we take a second to say "hello" to someone as you pass by them will brighten their day and know that they are noticed.

Make notice of those around you, smile, take notice and in some small way, you may help them more than you know.

There's An App For That

These days, there's a smartphone app for just about everything. But what about spiritual concerns? Where can you turn?

- Depressed? Try the joy app. Read Isaiah 51:11.
- Tired? Try the renewal app. Read Isaiah 40:30-31.
- Unsettled? Try the peace app. Read Philippians 4:7.
- Unloved? Try the love app. Read Romans 8:38- 39.
- Worried? Try the refuge app. Read Psalm 46:1.
- Fearful? Try the power app. Read 2 Timothy 1:7.
- Guilty? Try the forgiveness app. Read Colossians 1:13-14.
- Praying? Try the prayer app. Read 1 John 5:14-15.

The Scriptures are God's storehouse of meaningful applications for what we face every day. Think of the Bible as the iTunes Store of spiritual apps. Best of all, everything's free!

Paleo Banana Nut

Ingredients:

4 bananas, mashed with a fork (the more ripe, the better)

4 eggs

1/2 cup almond butter

2 tbsp coconut oil, melted

1 tsp vanilla

1/2 cup coconut flour

2 tsp cinnamon

1/2 tsp nutmeg

1 tsp baking powder

1 tsp baking soda

1/4 tsp salt

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Line a muffin tin with cups. In a large bowl, add bananas, eggs, almond butter, coconut oil, and vanilla. Using a hand blender, blend to combine. Add in the coconut flour, cinnamon, nutmeg, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. Blend into the wet mixture, scraping down the sides with a spatula. Distribute the batter evenly into the lined muffin tins, filling each about two-thirds of the way full. Bake for 20-25 minutes, until a toothpick comes out clean. Serve warm or store in the refrigerator in a resealable bag.

SCHEDULE

How Will This Year Be Different For You

New friends, old friends, nice teachers, scary teachers, a packed lunch, compulsory uniform and a fresh timetable. Going back to school is a day that inevitably comes each year. Some love it, others hate it or perhaps you just go through the motions indifferently. Regardless of how it makes you feel you have to go, so how will you make the most of it? How will you make this year at school worthwhile? It's time for you to step up!

School is an incredible place where you meet hundreds of young people and spend time with them 5 days a week for approximately 40 weeks a year. That presents an amazing opportunity to witness and share the gospel with so many people. In fact the best people to reach out to these students are students. The way you live and talk to your friends can be very powerful.

As a Christian, school ought to be looked at as one of the ultimate mission fields. Here are a few ways you can stand out and step up when you go back to school this year:

- MEET (Hebrews 10:25): Find out if there is a Christian lunchtime group at your school, and then join it or start one. Then bring your friends.
- TALK (1 Peter 3:15): When your friends ask what you did on the weekend, tell them about youth group or church and then invite them along. Tell your friends about your faith.
- LIVE (Matthew 5:16): Live like Jesus. Don't get caught up in gossip, materialism, slander or any ways of this world. But be different and people will notice, then you can point them to Jesus.
- PRAY (Colossians 4:2): pray for your mates, that they might come to know Jesus because prayer is powerful.

So as another year starts and the weekly cycle begins again, make a difference! Be bold and stand out for Jesus. Don't waste the time you have now and the opportunities that come at school. Whether you are in year 7 or year 12, at a public school, private school, Christian school or secular school, Jesus died for all our sake and he has sent us out to make disciples of all people. So why don't you start now?!
